Geographic Reach: From Appalachian hills to farmland to major cities, Ohio's geography shapes the experiences of students and families. The Ohio Statewide Family Engagement Center programming and resources reach practitioners and families in all of Ohio's 88 counties. Our approach to family-school partnership reflects these local contexts while ensuring every family has the tools to support student success. Beyond Ohio, the Center is respected as a national leader in the delivery of family engagement resources and professional learning utilized by parents and educators in states across the country.
